

Priya Verma

Student ID: 2026082

Data Structures and Algorithms – Midterm Examination

Question 1 (5 Marks):

What is the time complexity of Binary Search? Explain briefly.

Answer:

The time complexity of Binary Search is $O(\log n)$.

Binary Search works on a sorted array and repeatedly checks the middle element.

Depending on the comparison, the search continues in either the left or right part of the array until the element is found.